

Nothing Beats Family

Nothing Beats Family

What do we do? In short, we create inspiring environments. We believe in quality design and will continually challenge conventional thinking to provide customers with groundbreaking solutions prepared for the future. We genuinely believe that nothing beats family, and therefore our holistic approach to design has a clear line, which ensures coherence in the interior design throughout your organisation.

Our aim is to touch your inner smile when you try our furniture. Therefore, all our products are well thought out to be as functional and innovative as possible. Consequently, we provide multipurpose, problem solving, and comfortable furniture solutions that shape good environments into great experiences.

Across these pages you will see inspirational spaces, examples of flexible furniture and heightened functionality that can enhance the very heart of your organisation.

So, welcome, become astonished and enjoy our inspiring universe.

It is time to rethink your office space

FourLikes® / Design: Nørgaard Design

One moment we are working, the next we are in a meeting or relaxing over a cup of coffee. We believe that furniture should be modular and flexible to accommodate constantly changing needs. Collaborative spaces. Social spaces. Quiet spaces. Private spaces. All in one room to help you complete your to-do list throughout the day.

FourReal® 74 + FourReal® A / Design: Studio Ocee

We believe eating spaces should be truly multifunctional and work all hours of the day, not just between 12pm and 1pm. Therefore, the power to reconfigure easily and quickly is essential to accommodate different needs and functions. Luckily, that is no problem with our multifunctional and flexible furniture. It's relatively simple, just take your table for a walk or stack the chairs on trolleys.

The Sustainable Choice. Something to be proud of.

Being more environmentally responsible is imperative when creating the shape of things to come. The furniture industry is an essential player in this. Thankfully, today's designers and architects envisage a more environmentally conscientious future. So are we.

At Ocee Design, we always strive to do things better. By considering a holistic view of our products we aim to set targets within each stage of the product life cycle to reduce environmental impact.

- We will consider the design of the product and whether it aids recycling at end-of-life.
- We will consider the material types and companies we source from, ensuring they are aligned to our high quality and ethical standards.
- We will ensure that no harmful chemicals are used within production.
- We will look to reduce our environmental footprint by undertaking waste, energy and packaging audits and setting targets for continual improvement.
- We will aim to optimise delivery services, and will test our products to be sure that they are designed and made to last.

All of these factors have enabled us to receive the EU Ecolabel certification on a number of our products. This is just one of the international standards we conform to.

Take Back Scheme

Our Take Back scheme aims to reduce your environmental footprint by providing services to collect furniture that has reached its 'end-of-life' with you and avoid it reaching landfill by trying to find it a new home.

Read more about our Take Back Scheme on our website oceedesign.com

3 MAIN R'S

REUSE

Priority of Take Back Scheme is to give furniture a second life

REWORK

Products can be upcycled and reused

RECYCLE

Products that have really reached their end-of-life will be split into their components and recycled

A Sustainable Choice

We are looking into every department within the organisation, as decisions made at each stage of a product's lifecycle have the ability to affect our environment. We are monitoring our impact and making these choices.
